The Russian, Spanish and Corman embassies will be represented at New-port this season. The Russian Ambassador. George Bakhmeteff, has again eased Stone Villa, and the Spanish Ambassador has taken the Gilbert villa, in Bellevue avenue.

One of the fixtures of the spring season, the garden party in aid of the Army Relief Society, has been set for May 28 and it will be held as for some years past at Governors Island, both afternoon and evening. With its interesting surroundings this party always attracts and this year there will be plenty of dancing to meet the requirements of all, old or young. There will be military events from 3:30 to 5 and at 5:30 there will be the escort of the colors and dress parade and during the afternoon there will be music by military bands from New York harbor.

A the dansant at the Officers Club will be one of the features of the party. Mrs. Orin B. Mitcham, Mrs. George E. Downey Mrs. Albert E. Truby, Mrs. William C Cannon, Mrs. Albert Gleaves, Miss Anna Gleaves, Mrs. James B. Mitchell, Mrs. Charles H. Patterson, Mrs. Chauncey M. Humphrey, Mrs. Robert Allen, Miss Ethel Allen and Miss Katherine Rush are endeavoring to make it a great success. There will be some professional dancers from New York, and if the weather is inclement closed conveyances will take all to the shelter of the club. A regular army supper will be served at 6 o'clock.

There will be booths on the lawn for the sale of tea, refreshments, cake, ice cream, flowers and souvenirs. The com-mittee includes Miss Harriet Center, chairman; Mrs. Oliver B. Bridgman, Mrs. Fabius M. Clarke, Mrs. John & Mallery, Mrs. Stephen C. Mills and Mrs. Gordon Heiner. Those receiving at the garden party will be Mrs. Daniel S. Lamont, Gen. and Mrs. Charles F. Roe, Miss Center, Brig.-Gen. and Mrs. Robert H. Evans, Gen. Mrs. Mallery, Lieut.-Col. and Mrs. V'illiam G. Haan, Col. and Mrs. Mills and Col. and Mrs. Rogers Birnie.

The objects of the society are to collect funds and provide relief in case of emergency for dependent widows and orphans of officers and enlisted men of the regular army of the United States; to aid in securing employment; to so licit and create scholarships and supervise educational opportunities for such orphans.

Among the patrons and patronesses are the Secretary of War and Mrs. Garrison, Governor and Mrs. Glynn, the Mayor and Mrs. Mitchel, Major-Gen. Leonard Wood and Mrs. Wood, Mr. and Mrs. William H. Taft, Miss Grace Bigelow, Colonel and Mrs. Robert Means Thompson, Mrs. Russell Sage, Miss Leary, Mr. and Mrs. Finley Shepard. John D. Crimmins, Bishop and Mrs. David H. Greer, Professor and Mrs. H. Fairfield Osborn, Major and Mrs. Louis Livingston Seaman, Mr. and Mrs. Elihu Root, Mr. and Mrs. Philip A. S. Franklin, Mr. and Mrs. Cornelius R. Agnew, Mr. and Mrs. Henry L. Stimson, Dr. and Mrs. John B. Walker and Mr. and Mrs. Malcolm Stuart.

Tickets at $1 each may be obtained of Mrs. Charles F. Roe, 35 East Thirtyseventh street; Mrs. Oliver B. Bridgman. 507 Madison avenue; Miss Harriet M.

New York guests will leave by a special train from the Grand Central Station at 9:20 and will return shortly after the wedding breakfast.

Even the June weddings promise to be fewer than a year ago and while some will be celebrated in the city, most of them are being arranged for cours.
